"Sweden's Queen of Swing"
Gunhild Carling

Tuesday, June 18, at 10 pm

Blues Alley, 1073 Wisconsin Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20007

Gunhild Carling is a Swedish jazz musician and multi-instrumentalist. She is famous for playing three trumpets at the same time. Carling became known for her performance at Allsång på Skansen on July 20, 2010. Gunhild plays trombone, bagpipes, trumpet, recorder and harp, and will often showcase all of her skills in one song, sometimes casually breaking into a tap dance or singing lyrics. Carling competed as a celebrity dancer in Let's Dance 2014 on TV4, placing third. Children may enjoy the large back yard. Members are free to bring lawn games! Soccer goals and the kubb game will be provided. Visit: http://www.gunhildcarling.net/

6th ASA Nordic Language Meetup
June 29 from 3:00 - 6:00 pm

https://www.meetup.com/Nordic-Language-Meetup/

What we're about: Are you passionate or just curious about the Nordic countries and learning or speaking their individual languages? Maybe you are interested in speaking one of the Nordic languages, or just want to hang out with someone from the Nordic countries to find out who we are? If yes, this meetup group is for you! This group meets once a month at various locations. During the meeting time, we will form smaller discussion groups around the participants' language abilities and interests. The major language groups are Icelandic, Danish, Finnish, Norwegian, and Swedish. Feel free to join even if you don't speak a Nordic language! The number of members is now up to 173 and growing.

Note! To join, you must specify your Nordic language of interest.

Another successful Meetup! Our 5th Nordic Language Meetup was held at the Kennedy Center in the cafeteria on the top floor. The flags of the countries of two of our languages are show below, Finland on the left and Sweden on the right. This hall is the entrance on the left.
